

JA Business Ethics

All Round Development

Program Two 3-hour sessions on different days
Length:
Target Post-secondary or tertiary
Participants: students

Class size: 30

Language: Cantonese

School School to provide venue

Commitment: At least one teaching staff or facilitator to support student coordination

Cost: Free of charge

Introduction

Successful careers are built on sound ethical judgment and knowledge. JA Business Ethics exposes students to ethical challenges in the workplace. They will learn how to successfully navigate these dilemmas and apply lessons in real-life situations.

Program Highlights

Business volunteers share valuable insights and knowledge on practical strategies and methodologies in overcoming challenges in the modern workplace. The workshop will include discussion of case studies, sharing of real-life experiences and activities led by business volunteers.

Session 1

3 hours

Ethical decision-making

Explore an ethical decision-making checklist as guidance in making ethical decisions.

Common fallacies

Recognize common fallacies of logic in persuasive arguments.

Organizational ethics

Through case study, explore professional duties and ethical conflicts within various departments in a business.

Session 2

3 hours

Employee ethics

Recognize ethical requirements for employees at workplaces.

Social responsibility

Recognize prevalent theories of social responsibility and how a business makes decisions under different approaches.

Global business ethics - Multinational issues

Through role-play, explore complex ethical issues found in global business.

Student Takeaways

- Develop critical thinking to avoid unintentional mistakes when making choices
- Learn how to apply beliefs and values sensibly in the workplace to achieve career success
- Develop a framework for ethical decision-making balancing business objectives, personal and social responsibilities
- Certificate will be presented upon completion

About JA HK

Junior Achievement (JA) is dedicated to inspiring and preparing young people to succeed in the global economy, through our applied learning programs in work readiness, entrepreneurial thinking and financial literacy.

Junior Achievement Hong Kong (JA HK) is one of the 100+ members of JA Worldwide. We are a non-subsidized not-for-profit charity registered under S88 of the Inland Revenue Ordinance and leading provider of Other Learning Experiences in Hong Kong. Our programs enable young people to learn the world of work from the first-hand experience of business volunteers. Since our establishment in 2001, we have engaged the support of over 19,000 business volunteers from some 700 companies to serve more than 310,000 students from over 600 schools.

For enquiries, please contact us at:
3426 3146 or be.ja@jahk.org

ORGANISED BY

SPONSORED BY

